Rescue unit ends 6-hour standoff

An OPP Tactical Rescue Unit from Barrie was called in after shots were fired during a lengthy standoff when a Haliburton area woman barricaded herself in her house last Wednesday.

Following a domestic dispute, Penny Harrison, 39, of Kennis Lake Road, is said to have pointed a rifle at police and ambulance personnel who had responded to a call at her home.

Minden OPP officers were called to the scene at about 5:30 p.m. where Harrison had barricaded herself in the house along with a neighbouring woman. Police say the neighbour was not being held hostage during the six-hour ordeal.

Police negotiators attempted to convince Harrison to give herself up. At least one shot was fired during the incident and the Tactical Rescue Unit was called in for assistance.

Police say Harrison was finally arrested without incident at about 11:30 p.m. and was charged with the criminal offence of pointing a firearm. She has been lodged in the Lindsay jail pending a bail hearing today.

Butts out

To eliminate an apparent contradiction in goals, the Minden Drug Store plans to quit selling tobacco products by the end of the year.

Paul Heffer, owner of the local IDA pharmacy, says it was a personal decision to quit selling cigarettes. He says he feels it is not the proper thing for his store to be promoting the sale of cigarettes while, at the same time, promoting personal health.

With all the information available on the problems caused by smoking, it is a bit of a contradiction for a phar-

Christmas basket drive starts

With Christmas just 18 days away, the annual county-wide drive to prepare food baskets for needy families gets underway again today.

Donations of cash or food are again being accepted at the Four C's store in Haliburton Village, which will in turn deliver special food baskets to needy families across the county. These food baskets help bring

Christmas cheer to families that would otherwise go without.

Donations to this worthy effort can be made at the Four C's. Cheques, which will be used to purchase items for the baskets, can be made out to Reverend John Smith.

People who wish to receive a basket, or know someone who should receive a basket, should also contact the Four C's.

Housing project nearing final hurdle

A proposal for another 32-unit senior citizen's housing complex is a step closer following a meeting Thursday evening at the municipal office. The meeting was called to air any objections or complaints to the proposed project. About 15 individuals attended the meeting and all appeared to be in favour of the project.

The complex is the latest project of the Staunworth Housing Authority, a non-profit organization representing the interests of citizens in the municipalities of Stanhope, Lutter-worth, and Anson, Hindon and Minden. The corporation had built the 18-unit Sunrise Apartments at the corner of Bobcaygeon Road and Parkside Drive, and the 22-unit Staunworth Court, on Prentice Street next to the municipal tennis courts.

The latest proposal would see the two-level complex built on a triangular piece of land just south of Staunworth Court. The land in question lies between Prentice Street and Parkside Drive, adjacent to the arena.

The corporation's architect, Vas Kuchar was in attendance Thursday evening to discuss the details of the new building. He also presented an artist's concept of the finished building.

The architect noted that while the building will have two floors, each level will have access to street levels since the building is being constructed into the side of a hill. Those on the upper level apartments will have an exit onto Prentice Street, while the 12 units on the lower level will exit on their level to Parkside Drive. This feature eliminates the need for some residents to climb stairs. The plans call for the installation of an elevator for those who wish to move between levels within the building.

The architect told the gathering the new building would be equipped in a manner similar to Staunworth Court and it will share architectural features similar to the existing building. He noted, however, that the new building will function as a separate structure.

Kuchar pointed out that the site is currently covered with a thick growth of Scotch pine trees, planted a number of years ago. He told the meeting, during the construction of the building an effort would be made to retain as many of the existing trees as possible.

Decorate your Door

The popular wreath and door decoration workshop returns again this year. Anne Neave of Campbell's Garden Centre & Flower Shop will provide tips and ideas on dressing up your front door for the Christmas season. The seminar includes a hands-on workshop during which you should be able to complete one decoration.

Santa & Movies

The Rotary Club of Minden presents its annual free theatre party at The Beaver Theatre, this Saturday, December 12. Children will enjoy two movies, "Care Bears Adventure in Wonderland" and "The Chipmunk's Adventure". The show begins at 1 p.m. and is expected to end between 3:30 and 4 p.m. Santa will be on hand to distribute goodies to the children as they leave the theatre. There is no charge for admission.

One Little Candle

For years, the simple candle has served as a symbol for mankind. The single candle has been a beacon of hope, celebration and love. Particularly at this time of the year, the bright flame of the candle cuts through the darkness of the long winter nights creating a warm and inviting haven for all who share its glow.

Minden and area residents are invited to be a part of this Christmas tradition by placing a candle in their windows. Through a special purchase, single electric candles are available at downtown Minden stores. It is hoped that residents throughout the area will purchase one of these candles and display it prominently in a window during Christmas in the Village.

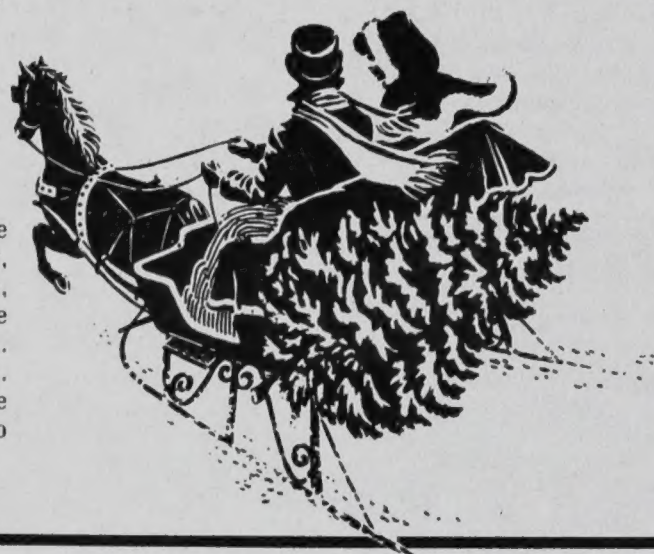

(Participants will be interested in taking part in the door decoration contest which includes cash prizes. See contest details on this page).

The workshop will be held December 9 at the Minden Community Centre starting at 7:30 p.m. Registration will be $12 and includes basic materials, pine, blue spruce or cedar, wire frame and wires. Participants should bring wire shears, a pair of scissors and decorative items to be included in the decoration.) Free refreshments will be served. (Additional materials will be available for purchase at the time of the workshop). Pre-registration is important so the proper quantity of material can be ordered. Please register at Campbell's Garden Centre & Flower Shop, South Water Street, Minden, by December 3.

Dashing through the snow

Kids! and adults too. Enjoy the fun of a horse-drawn sleigh ride every Saturday in downtown Minden. Jump aboard the hay covered wagon and tour the village streets as the jingle of sleigh bells brings back visions of old time Christmas traditions.

Look for the team and wagon each Saturday from 10 a.m. to noon and 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. The rides are free.

CHRISTMAS IN THE VILLAGE DECORATION CONTEST

Brighten up your Christmas and your community with imaginative seasonal decorations. Your efforts could be rewarded with one of our cash prizes.

AHM council notes

The following are items discussed at the November 26 meeting of Anson, Hindon and Minden Townships Council.

Resignation

In a split vote, council accepted the resignation of Assistant Arena Manager Brian Clarke.

Council did not discuss the circumstances that brought about the resignation, but it comes on the heels of a breakdown of the ice-making equipment at the arena that caused all the ice to melt.

A recorded vote showed councillors Verne Graham and Bob Sisson opposing the resolution to accept the resignation.

Lake access

The consensus of council was not in favour of selling a portion of a road allowance leading to Twelve Mile Lake.

William Casey approached council asking to purchase the property on which his cottage sits. However, council was not prepared to give up its title to that property.

It was noted that there are 38 years remaining on a 99-year lease, and this council would be willing to renew the lease. Councillor Verne Graham compared Casey's situation to that of cottage owners in Algonquin Park, who are all on leases.

Beach work

Before this council's term comes to an end a year from now, the improvements to the Ingoldsby beach will be completed, Reeve Sinc Nesbitt promised.

Responding to questions from Linda Schrader, Nesbitt said it was his understanding that the work had already been completed. He said he would be contacting Parks Superintendent Brian Sisson to find out when he will have time to finish the work.

Nesbitt told Schrader that the work has been budgetted for, but said that perhaps council has been giving the parks department more jobs than it can handle lately.

Sled dog derby

An increase in the number of spectators is expected for this year's Minden Sled Dog Derby. Race Co-ordinator Val Loughheed told council in her annual update.

Two bus loads of people from Martin Feed Mills, the race sponsors, will be arriving to watch the race. In addition, Cardinal Coach is also providing tours for the race.

With so many extra people coming in for the January 9 and 10 race, Councillor Bern Berry suggested that a letter be sent off to area businesses encouraging them to keep their stores open. Councillor Verne Graham also suggested that a hospitality room should be set up where people can get in out of the cold.

Loughheed said a number of TV crews will be attending the event, and the Sled Dog Committee is hoping some area merchants will provide signage for a backdrop for interviews. Council agreed to provide a township flag for this.

Tenders

Council opened tenders on four separate items at the November 26 meeting:

William Simmerson's tender for the maintenance of the Scotch Line Landfill Site was accepted. Although he was slightly underbid on this contract, council felt the work should go to a local contractor. His bid of $31,900 is the same price as what he did the work for last year. The lowest bid came from Garwood Stevenson at $29,350.

Sid Stamp Fuels was awarded the contract to supply gasoline, diesel and fuel oil to the township.

The prices accepted are 43.64 cents per litre for gas, 41.7 cents for diesel, and 27.7 cents for furnace oil.

J and B Cleaning won the contract for cleaning the municipal office, public washrooms and Library Cultural Centre, with its low bid of $654 per month.

Dearden, Stanton, Stones and Strongman was the only firm to bid on a surveying contract for the east side of Beaver Creek.

Acid rain report

The following report on precipitation is based on information gathered at the Ministry of Environment Acid Rain Testing Station in Dorset and compiled by Environment Canada.

There were 3 precipitation events during the period November 22 - 29:

- November 23: 7 mm rain, pH 4.3, from Kentucky, West Virginia, Ohio and southern Ontario.

- November 25: 20 cm snow, pH 5.1, from New York, southern Quebec and eastern Ontario.

November 28: 3 mm rain, pH 4.7, from New Jersey, Pennsylvania, New York and eastern Ontario.

Environmental damage is usually observed in sensitive areas regularly receiving precipitation with pH less than 4.7. Readings of 4.0 pH or less are considered dangerous. The lower the reading, the more acidic the precipitation.

Council shows foresight

A bit of praise is in order for Anson, Hindon and Minden Townships Council for its continued support of retaining access points to the lakes and rivers within the municipality's boundaries.

At the last regular council meeting a resident presented a strong case for the municipality to sell him a portion of the undeveloped access road on which his cottage sits. The access road is rarely, if ever, used by the public and council heard that there is another access point in that area. However, council rightfully stuck to its policy by not agreeing to sell the property.

While it might be argued that there is no real need for this lake access to remain open at this time, there is no telling what might develop in the years ahead. And once the property is sold, the chances of it ever being turned back to the public are almost nil.

A few months ago in an editorial we commented on the rapidly dwindling number of lake access points being maintained by the municipalities in the county. Anson, Hindon and Minden council is bucking this trend and should be congratulated for their foresight.

For the past few months, Minden drivers have put up with the inconvenience of the construction project on Bobcaygeon Road. However, last week the first layer of blacktop was spread.

New measures protect victims

by Bill Scott, M.P.

In the October 1, 1986 Speech from the Throne, the government committed itself to reforms to the Criminal Code to protect innocent citizens. We promised additional measures to protect and assist victims of criminal violence.

Earlier this year, in the debate in the House of Commons on the principle of restoration of Capital Punishment, speaker after speaker from all parties in the House, no matter where they stood on the issue, voiced the opinion that the Criminal Code should reflect this concern. While I did not agree with the results of the final vote on that debate, as I said at the time, it was my hope that the debate and discussions that centred around the issue would focus attention on amendments to the Criminal Code to better protect our society.

On November 5, 1987, the Minister of Justice, the Hon. Ray Hnatyshyn, tabled Bill C-89, An Act to amend the Criminal Code (victims of crime) and, as well, announced increased federal funding to provincial and territorial programs for victims of crime.

Under C-89, the courts would now be able to impose a victim fine surcharge on those convicted of any offence under the Criminal Code, Part III or IV of the Food and Drug Act or the Narcotic Control Act. These fines would be used for provincial and territorial programs and services for victims of crime. The proposed amendment would allow for a maximum of 15% of any fine imposed or a flat fee in an amount not greater than $10,000 where no fine is imposed, in addition to any fine or other punishment.

Bill C-89 will formalize and encourage the use of victim impact statements. This will give victims the chance to have input at the time of sentencing and bring the impact of the crime to the attention of the court. They will be able to describe the harm done

Black recaps 'story of the year'

by Arthur Black

Well, 1987 is far from over, but as far as I'm concerned, they might as well roll the credits, because I've already picked my Greatest Canadian News Story of The Year. No, it wasn't the Deposing of Richard Hatfield or the Buffoonery of Simon Reisman or the Triumph of Team Canada in the Hockey Wars. My nomination for Canadian News Story of the Year is: Peter Mansbridge: The Brain That Didn't Drain.

What's that, madame? You claim that you passed the second week of November trapped by a rock slide at the bottom of a zinc mine near Timmins - that you missed the gripping "Peter Mansbridge to Stay" drama? No problem. Let us, as they say in the News

Biz, recap.

It happened during a week that saw deadly skirmishes in the Persian Gulf, hideous yaws and swoops on the world's stock exchanges, sundry epidemics of starvation, drought and disease hither and yon, half a dozen exciting football games, one or two African coups and a transit strike in Montreal - but the story that was on every Canucks lips was the story of Peter Mansbridge, CBC News Reader, and his heroic refusal to change studios.

You had to be there, madame. At centre stage, doughty little Peter, news script clutched tightly to his breast, and there, looming over him, the evil Media Mogul known as CBS Television, lewdly dripping dollars and dangling a contract. Petie could be a rich man, an American folk hero - maybe even get to have lunch with Bawbwa Walters. All he had to do was sign, and he could leave his grotty CBC studio behind for the glitzy grandeur of the CBS palace in New York.

CBS beckoned and leered ... Peter swayed and grimaced in indecision ... A nation of unwashed frost-backs held its collective breath ... then suddenly ...

TAH DAHHHHHHHH! Galloping over the horizon, looking uncannily like Jeff Chandler or Randolph Scott at the head of the U.S. Ninth Cavalry, here comes Canada's most famous news reader, Knowlton Nash, just in time to scoop Peter from under the very maw of the American monster. Don't worry, Peter, says Knowlton. I will give you my plum of an assignment, reading The National every week night. I shall assume your menial claim to fame, as

Federation of Ontario Naturalists

I have just been along the edge of the ravine collecting dried seed heads to fill a crockery jar that once held vinegar. Like the squirrels I am collecting before we have another snowstorm. Unlike them my collection will be for decoration rather than for use. I gathered teasel and curly dock. I also broke off a sprig of black swallow-wort, its pods split and empty. A relative of the milkweed, its slender ochre pods are delicate as the old-fashioned starched side wings of a nun's coif. But this graceful foreigner is so aggressive in its habits one of its common names is dog-strangling vine. Once it takes hold it chokes out all other growth.

The bleached dun and earth-coloured landscape looks dead, but nothing could be further from the truth. Signs of next season's life are everywhere. The wildflowers that until recently carpeted the ravine banks have formed seeds of all sorts.

Panicked asters, that bloomed in September white and pale lilac along the top of the ravine slope, have turned into buttons of fluff which floats away in the wind leaving the tiny silver stars of the calyx. The heads of the late goldenrod are woollier and the seeds less inclined to come away at a touch. They will shed their seeds gradually all winter. Stiff spikes of common mullein tower over the other plants, dwarfing the delicate umbels of Queen Anne's lace and the feathery heads of dried grasses. Along the fence the sweet-smelling wild roses have formed hips which have ripened to a shiny magenta.

Now I can choose from all this array something for my earthenware pot. Later, when the snow lies drifted over the fields, wild birds like goldfinches and snow buntings will cling to the remaining seedheads to garner a meal. Almost all wild flowers supply some food for wildlife.

The shrubs along the edge of the ravine also provide food and shelter for wildlife. A flock of chickadees is busy cleaning off the rusty horns of the sumachs. A bittersweet vine, orange fruit split to reveal the scarlet seeds, has draped itself over a pine tree on the slope. In places the riverbank grape has formed an impenetrable tangle of vines as thick around as my wrist. Some clusters of grapes still cling, pursed and black like tiny prunes.

Wading through the dried vegetation I have picked up on my sweat pants some travelling seeds. There are beggar's ticks like two-pronged lozenges and burdock seeds which have clotted in the rough wool of my socks, clinging one on top of another to form a monstrous carbuncle. Although ridding myself of these unwelcome riders will be a nuisance, my outing has been a success. The contents of my earthenware jug will remind me all winter of that walk, and of what lies under the snow waiting for the first warm days of March.

Editor:

On a Thursday evening CBC Ottawa Television interview, a spokesperson by the name of Ms. Ganz addressed a pro-life meeting in that city and talked about PAS - post abortion syndrome. She talks about the abortion experience as having serious psycho-traumatic consequences. She said that PAS is probably the most serious mental health issue that the women of the USA are facing in the history of that country, and that this might also be true for Canadian women as well. Ganz has also carried her message to Australia and Great Britain. Hers is also the voice of experience. "I regret every day of my life what happened on February 27, 1981, no moment of that day leaves my memory that I don't wish, somehow, that I could have had the courage or found the strength within myself to protect myself and my child from this pain".

The Surgeon-General of the USA, Dr. Everett Koop, has launched a nation-wide study on Post abortion syndrome. Ganz says they're just beginning to understand it. She says that PAS manifests itself in a number of ways, "Feelings of guilt, anger, depression, sexual dysfunction, relationship dysfunction - even difficulty coping at her job can become quite prevalent among women who have had an abortion experience".

The Pro-life movement in Ontario has become alarmed at the Peterson government's intention to open 12 abortion clinics for business in this province. The ongoing sacrifice of the innocent baby to relieve those caught in a crisis pregnancy may seem to be a short-term solution, but the price required to pay for this easy expediency may be very costly in terms of psychological and emotional well being. After all, the myth that there is a blob of tissue simply developing has been exploded so we are no longer acting in ignorance; ultra sound, hi-tech photography having revealed quite clearly that a distinct human baby is there in the womb awaiting birth. Every time an abortion is carried out, a human baby is killed, or deprived of life. Unfortunately the Peterson government and other avid abortion clinic supporters are prepared to offer this quick expedient naively thinking that the woman will bounce back to life if only the equation 'time plus chance' is on her side.

The Kawartha Abortion centre planned for Peterborough, is not in the best interest of women over the long haul. Please write to Mr. Maxwell, Administrator, at the Civic Hospital, Peterborough, and voice your opposition. A letter to Elinor Caplin and Mr. Eakins at Queen's Park would be effective.

Hopefully this will stop the militant feminist, Elinor Caplin and Mr. Peterson, from carelessly and irrationally setting these women up. When a woman decides to take the life of her baby should there not be some kind of check which will provide an opportunity for reflection before the final decision to have an abortion is acted upon? Abortion clinics eliminate that option.

Consider Fitzpatrick's theory

host of Saturday Report.

Greater love hath no talking head than this, that he lay down his anchorship for his country.

All kidding aside, you have to wonder what it is about Americans and their fascination with the way Canadians look on the Boob Tube. Consider these names: Lorne Greene, Morley Safer, Peter Jennings, Peter Kent, Keith Morrison. Those are all Canadian newsmen who did not resist the greenback blandishments of American television, and moved south to ply their trade. Canadians are in disproportionate demand even as game show hosts. Art Linkletter, Alex Trebek and Monte Hall are all transplanted ex-Canucks.

Why is it American TV types think Canadians work so well - particularly as electrified town criers? Don Fitzpatrick has a theory.

Fitzpatrick is president of a California firm of media head hunters that regularly scours the airwaves in search of major talent. They find potential stars languishing at obscure rural television stations in

Dubuque or Brandon, sign them up and try to sell them to the big networks. It was Fitzpatrick who stumbled across a videotape of Mansbridge reading the news and brought it to the attention of CBS. About Canadians on TV, Fitzpatrick says: "Canadian anchors have very, very strong voices, much more so than American anchors. And their delivery is much more authoritative, as opposed to the laughing and scratching style on American newscasts."

Yeah, well, I don't know if you can hang a nation's identity on that, but it's something, I suppose.

As for CBS, well I guess they'll quest a little longer until they stumble across some as yet unknown charismatic who's probably reading the Hog Report on some station in Kansas right now. CBS will find him or her and bestow the million dollar contract that Peter Mansbridge didn't accept.

It's interesting though, isn't it? All those apocalyptic prophecies about the decline and fall of the American Empire were obviously premature.

You think any society on the brink of collapse could afford to pay some pretty face a million dollars to read it bedtime stories?

Photos can be evidence

(from page 4) Another part of the amendment would allow the use of certified photographs of recovered property as evidence in cases involving theft, breaking and entering, possession of stolen goods, fraud and obtaining by false pretence. This will let the police return recovered property quickly which might have otherwise been retained for use in court. It will also permit the admissibility of an affidavit or solemn declaration to establish ownership and value of property.

Lutterworth council notes

The following items were discussed at the December 1 meeting of Lutterworth Township Council.

Severance

A proposed severance of a 15-acre parcel of land at the junction of Highways 121 and 35 meets with the requirements set out by council at an earlier meeting.

Property owner Robert Marsh presented council with a pair of surveys that demonstrate each of the newly-created lots would have at least 300 feet of highway frontage.

At the November 19 council meeting, a resolution was passed approving the severance, providing that each lot has at least the minimum amount of highway frontage required. This provision has now been met.

Marsh plans to build an apartment building on one of the lots and sell the remaining two.

Insurance

After hearing presentations from two insurance companies at earlier meetings, council voted Tuesday to accept the package detailed by Frank Cowan Insurance.

Because there were large differences in the amount of coverage for various items recommended by the two companies, council felt it was impossible to compare the two on a cost basis. Reeve Bill Valentine said he favoured Cowan because this company has proven to be reliable in the past.

When passed, Bill C-89 will require the court to consider restitution in all cases involving damage, loss or destruction of property, and money spent because of injuries as a result of crime. Where these damages are easily assessed, the amendments will require the court to assess the loss incurred by the victims and the offender's ability to pay. The court would be able to extend the order to pay, vary the time for payments, impose new conditions or impose a prison term.

This amendment would extend the discretionary and mandatory ban on the publication of the identity of the victim in cases involving sexual and extortion offences and to witnesses testifying in the prosecution of those offences.

macy to be selling these products. The Minden Drug Store has already quit re-ordering, and Heffer expects that the remaining tobacco products will be gone by the new year.

The Canadian Pharmaceutical Association has been encouraging its members to get out of tobacco sales for a number of years, and Heffer says that over the past three years many stores have been dropping the products.

The increased federal funding to provincial and territorial programs and services will take the following form:

- a) Additional Injuries Compensation Program - $16.2 million
- b) Victim Assistance Fund - $8 million
- c) Research and Community Projects - $3 million

Considers five-year road plan

Lutterworth Township is considering entering into a new five-year roads plan that would prioritize the work to be carried out in the township.

Andy Mintz and Jim Robertson from the Ministry of Transportation attended last Tuesday's council meeting to provide details on the new program being introduced by the Ministry.

According to Mintz, each road in the township would be examined and given a rating from one to 10. He explained that a '10' would be an ideal road, while a 'five' would be in need of work. The ratings applied to each township road would be decided by a consultant in conjunction with the Township Road Superintendent and Ministry personnel.

Mintz estimated that the cost to the township to hire a consultant would be about $2,000 and said the ratings would have to be done after the spring break up "when the road is at its absolute worst."

Once the ratings are completed, the township would be able to schedule a five-year road maintenance construction plan.

Reeve Bill Valentine praised the plan, saying it would reduce the need for going out each year, examining the roads.

Pine Ridge better than ever

Two years after a fire turned a Highlands landmark into a heap of smouldering ashes, the Pine Ridge Resort has once again reclaimed its position on the Gull Lake horizon. The resort, just off Highway 35 south of Minden, opened its doors last week following a year of planning, construction and loving attention to detail.

That year of hard work is evident in the building which now stands where the old green frame structure once nestled into the side of the hill. Strikingly modern, without seeming out of place, the new Pine Ridge combines the best of resort tradition, with modern touches.

True to its name, the owners have given pine a prominent role in the interior decoration. Sweeping cathedral ceilings vault skyward with the warm honey glow of the rich wood. Broad windows along the west exposure provide a panorama of Gull Lake and the forests on either side of the snug bay. A wide deck extends the summer dining and relaxing area to the great outdoors.

The owners, Tom and Bill Ecclestone and Steve Lacy have chosen an open concept for the main floor, allowing one area to flow into the next, providing maximum flexibility in floor space use while maintaining a distinctly separate dining area.

The three owners hope their new building will prove to be an attraction to local diners. During the summer they hope to draw from the more than 900 cottages on Gull Lake, pointing out that their restaurant is the only one on the lake which can be reached by boat, and that includes boats moored in the Gull River at Minden.

During the winter months, the resort's proximity to the Prentice HCSA trail, will mean that snowmobilers will make regular use of the facilities.

Just behind the resort, though hidden by a thicket of trees, is Highway 35, providing easy access for those using a more conventional form of transportation.

The menu at the Pine Ridge Resort will feature barbeque chicken and ribs, a specialty not found elsewhere in the Highlands, Tom notes. The menu includes daily specials, the traditional char-broiled steaks and tasty finger food.

The new facility can accommodate close to 60 diners on an open evening or upwards of a hundred for a banquet or private party.

"We are striving to create a casual, at-home atmosphere," Tom said. He pointed out that a small balcony overlooking the spacious dining and drinking areas provides a quiet nook to slip away from the crowd. A pool table off to the side, on the main floor, and a dance floor are added features of the resort.

While the main dining area is now open, the partners still have their work cut out for them. The lower floor, which will contain a children's play area and a health club, is still being worked on and should be ready for the summer trade next year. When completed, the resort will be an ideal destination for day visitors and for those taking advantage of the accommodation offered in the cottages spotted around the bay.

But for now, visitors will be more than satisfied with the warm surroundings of the Pine Ridge Resort restaurant and lounge, a welcome return of an old Highlands friend.

In addition to the three owners, staff at the Pine Ridge Resort include kitchen manager Llyn Shirley, Dave McDonald, Keith Kennedy and Ruth-Anne Brohn.

Tom Ecclestone, Steve Lacy and Bill Ecclestone have spent more than a year constructing the new Pine Ridge Resort. The result of their labours is a warm and inviting restaurant-lounge overlooking Gull Lake.

Up from the ashes, the new Pine Ridge Resort is back on the Gull Lake shoreline.

Half of seven is not always 3.5

Owning a half interest in seven acres of land is a far cry from owning 3.5 acres, Alan Coulter learned at last Tuesday's Lutterworth Township Council meeting.

Coulter, who has a deed to an undivided half interest in a seven-acre parcel of land on Moores Lake, told council that he had the land rezoned from rural to shoreline residential in 1985, but said the township reversed this rezoning.

Leafing through a file on the property, Reeve Bill

Valentine found that a rezoning application had been filed. However, he noted that 13 objections were filed against the rezoning. In such cases, Ontario Municipal Board approval is necessary for the rezoning to go through. Valentine noted that an OMB hearing was never called for.

Coulter had hoped to have the land rezoned and severed into a number of residential lots. Half of the lots would be in his name and the rest would remain in the name of the co-owner Maurac Investments.

However, council felt this proposal could not be achieved without some clearance from Maurac. "There's nothing we can do as a council until we have some sort of civil clearance," said Valentine. "There's nothing we'd like better than to see that land on the market," he said, but the title to the property would have to be straightened around first.

Council felt that, in effect, Coulter is a partner in the ownership of the entire seven acres. Because no lines have been drawn separating Coulter's share of the property from Morac's any rezoning or severances would need Morac's approval.

Further complicating this issue is a matter of more than $13,000 in unpaid taxes on the property. While Coulter offered to pay his share of this in exchange for the rezoning, council felt its hands are tied on the matter.

Brown Owl changes hands

The Brown Owl Restaurant and Gas Bar on Highway 35 has been sold. Proprietors John and Kathy Stainton confirmed the sale last week, noting the transfer of ownership will take place December 21.

The Restaurant and Petro Canada gas bar has been sold to John Kim of Lindsay. Mr. Kim is the operator of a similar sized restaurant and gas station in that city.

John Stainton said the sale of the Brown Owl would not affect his intention to construct a hotel on property adjacent to Highway 35. Plans for the project were announced over a year ago but work on the 37 room facility has been delayed pending a rezoning of the property. A hearing zoning to resolve the impasse is expected to be held next month.

BENEFIT FUND

FOR BILL HOGG

A benefit fund for Bill Hogg, injured earlier this fall, has been established by his friends.

(Bill Hogg was a captain on Minden's Volunteer Fire Department).

The fund has been established in the name of the Municipality which means donors will receive a receipt usable for tax exemption purposes.

For more information on this benefit fund or upcoming dance, call Tammy McKelvey at 286-1260 or 286-3341 in the evenings.

Cable television lines cut

Until construction work on the Bobcaygeon Road comes to a stop this winter, Cable TV viewers can expect further interruptions of service says Haliburton CATV owner Bob Bishop.

Since construction began, the cable lines have been cut eight times says Bishop, whose office has been receiving calls and letters from subscribers. Sometimes the lines have been cut more than once a day, he says.

Although the locations of the lines were marked out prior to the start of construction, Bishop feels workers have ignored these markings. Whenever digging is necessary within three feet of the cable lines, the construction crews are supposed to dig by hand. However, Bishop says they are going through with the backhoe and the lines are being broken.

He is asking that subscribers be patient until the construction comes to a stop. As soon as a line is broken his crews are sent out to make repairs.

Dancing was the furthest thing from Redmen player Brent Flood's mind as he tangles with a Fenelon Falls Falcon during a game at the Minden arena last Wednesday.

Burke carries Redmen to tie with Falcons

An outstanding performance by HHSS Redmen goaltender Andrew Burk carried his team to a 3-3 tie in a penalty-riddled game against Fenelon Falls at the Minden arena last Wednesday.

After notching an easy 9-0 win over Crestwood a day earlier, the Redmen were obviously frustrated as they took on the strong Fenelon Falls squad. The puck rarely went outside the Redmen blue line through the first period of play as the home team crowded the penalty box with as many as four men at a time. As a result, Burk faced a steady onslaught of rubber being fired from all directions.

Despite the constant pressure, Burk held the opponents to just one goal in the first frame. And then with two men still doing time on penalties earned in the first period, Fenelon Falls boosted their lead to 2-0 just 30 seconds into the second.

The Redmen finally had their chance just 20 seconds later as Tom McLeod left the penalty box, picked up a stray pass at the red line and skated in to beat the Fenelon Falls goalie. However, the goal was disallowed as the linesman ruled that McLeod had not entered a neutral area after leaving the box.

Erin Nichol notched

the Redmen's first legitimate goal of the game at the 6:51 mark of the second period, but Fenelon Falls restored their two-goal lead 20 seconds later with a shot from the blue line.

As they had demonstrated in some of their earlier games, the Redmen refused to play dead regardless of how much they may be trailing in the third period. Similar to their last home game against St. Peters, the Redmen really turned on the steam in the final frame and outplayed their opponents to even the count.

Hunter Obee accepted a pass from Scott Russell and notched the second Redmen goal, bringing them within striking distance. And just over a minute later Jeff Popple evened the count with an assist from Nichols.

The tables were turned in the final five minutes of play, as Fenelon Falls sacrificed men to the penalty box and the Redmen maintained pressure on their opponents' goal. However, they could not find the mark to push them into the lead.

Wednesday's results improve the Redmen's record to two wins, one tie and four losses. They earned their first win of the season over Peterborough's Adam Scott on November 26 after losing their first four games of the season.

Their recent wins, as well as their tie with Fenelon Falls, could be a sign of more good things to come. Fenelon Falls was on a five-game winning streak before they met the Redmen.

Stanhope Citizens of the Year

Almost two decades of continual service as volunteer members of the Stanhope Airport Committee has been recognized in the naming of the Stanhope Township Citizen of the Year.

Sharing the honour this year are Derek and Pam Rolfe, who have both served as members of the airport committee since the early 1970's. The announcement was made by Reeve Harry Davis in front of about 150 guests at the annual Christmas party at the Stanhope Community Centre last Saturday evening.

Derek, who is currently chairman of the committee, has served a number of terms in this position, as well as terms as vice chairman and safety officer.

In his role as safety officer, which he had held since the early 1980's, he has performed many time consuming duties, which include daily checks of the runway conditions, deciding on necessary closings and openings of the runway, and giving notice of closings to appropriate authorities.

Pam has been equally active in the community and on the airport committee. She has served many terms as assistant secretary to Louise Watson, and has served as secretary since Watson retired in the early 1980's.

Pam has also been a member of the Stanhope Fun Day Committee since the event's inception in 1978 and is a familiar face at the beef barbeque.

Both Pam and Derek have been actively involved in all airport fly-ins, with Derek serving as the communications officer. Derek has also contributed many hours of volunteer work with airport maintenance and construction of hangars. He serves as council's representative on the Airport Conference of Ontario and has attended many meetings on behalf of the committee and council.

In accepting the award, Pam and Derek thanked everyone for the recognition and promised that their work for the community would continue.

While there can only be one—or in this case, two—citizens of the year,

Stanhope is fortunate to have many residents who contribute their time for the benefit of the community, said Reeve Davis.

To recognize a few of these people, honourable mentions were given to eight other community-minded residents. These are Isabelle Gibbs, Grant Montgomery, Lloyd Coleman, John Dron, Ross Vincent, Shirley Wallace, Lottie Edwards-Ruttan and George and Edna Tipton.

Pam and Derek Rolfe accept the award for Citizens of the Year in Stanhope Township from the Reeve, Harry Davis at the annual Christmas party Saturday night at the Fire Fighters Hall.

VIDEO TAPES - BUYER BEWARE!!!

Look CAREFULLY at the cardboard sleeve of those video tapes you've bought - or are about to buy! If you don't see the official logo on the package, or plastic casing, it means that the tape is NOT licenced by JVC, the Japanese company that originated the VHS format! Unlicenced VHS videotapes (and tapes whose labels state "suitable for VHS machines") are NOT necessarily what they appear to be.

By contrast, No Name VHS "High Grade" T-120 Video Tapes are OFFICIALLY licenced by JVC; these are REAL VHS video tapes. What's more, they're a genuine bargain: Just $4.99 each - for a tape that provides up to 360 minutes of recording and playback!!

Licenced VHS tapes such as No Name bear this logo on the cardboard sleeve or plastic cassette.

Beware of tapes bearing these kinds of logos - they are not JVC approved.

Garth Gammon

The community has lost a dear friend and ardent supporter in the death of Garth Gammon early Friday morning.

Garth and his wife Peggy are among many individuals who have chosen this area as an inviting place in which to retire. They moved here in September 1982 from Scarborough. In the short time that Garth has been a resident of Minden, he has made a lasting impact on the community. He was not one who saw retirement as a time for "just taking it easy."

Shortly after arriving in Minden, Garth and Peggy took over the operation of the snack bar at the Minden arena. From their place behind the counter they established an immediate and warm rapport with the many young figure skaters and hockey players who populate the arena in the winter. Always with a smile or a quick joke, Garth endeared himself to everyone who he met as concessionaire.

Garth was also an active member of the Minden Rotary Club, joining in 1983. He was a ready volunteer, motivator and excellent ambassador of the ideals of this international organization, as well as an officer of the local club. Garth took a leading role in the operation of the club's fund raising, especially the regular Bingo games. Through his enthusiasm and innovative ideas, Garth made this activity the major fund raising source for the local club. His involvement earned him the friendly title "Mr. Bingo" among fellow club members and regular Bingo players.

Garth's enthusiastic involvement in various aspects of the ideals of Rotary International was marked recently by the awarding of a Paul Harris Fellowship, one of the highest honours of the Rotary organization.

Garth was a native of Quill Lake, Saskatchewan, but spent all of his married life in Toronto. He was employed by General Motors for 30 years. Following his retirement, he was a real estate sales agent in Toronto for a year before moving to Minden.

Garth is survived by his wife Peggy, son Gary, daughter Gale Bureau, both of Toronto and grandchildren Sherry and Adam. Also surviving are a number of brothers and sisters in western Canada.

The family has requested that in lieu of flowers, donations to the Minden Hospital or the Canadian Cancer Society would be appreciated.

Objections are unlikely

Councillor Verne Graham, who chaired the meeting, told the gathering that the municipality had not received any objections to the new structure and since no one had spoken up at the Thursday meeting, the necessary rezoning would proceed.

The municipal council is expected to give its approval to the project this Thursday, following which there will be a 35-day period for formal objections to be received.

The construction costs of the apartment complex are paid through a combined federal and provincial housing program. Rents paid by tenants are geared to income.

ENVIRONMENTAL ASSESSMENT BOARD

FUNDING FOR INTERVENORS

Notice of Public Hearing for Funding on the Proposal by the Ministry of Natural Resources for a Class Environmental Assessment for Timber Management on Crown Lands in Ontario

The Environmental Assessment Board is authorized by Order in Council 2449/87 to provide funding up to a total of $300,000 in connection with the environmental assessment hearing with respect to the Ministry of Natural Resources Timber Management Class Environmental Assessment.

Public hearings on this matter are expected to commence in the spring of 1988. Notice will shortly be published of preliminary meetings which will be held to deal with procedural matters and the identification of issues and parties, in preparation for the main hearings.

Funding will be made available to assist applicants who meet the criteria established in the Order in Council.

A funding panel, established by the Chairman of the Environmental Assessment Board, will consider requests for funding by applicants. Forms setting out the information required by the Funding Panel must be obtained and completed prior to funding hearings being established. Location of these hearings will be dependent on the applications received. All applicants should contact the Board by December 17, 1987.

Please telephone the Board Secretary for further details at (416) 323-4806. The Board accepts collect calls.

The recent Lioness Bus Trip afforded a number of ladies a day away to see the sights and lights, have lunch and generally enjoy themselves.

Winners at Club 35 last Monday were door prize Edith Russell, lone hands Neil Cartwright, high lady Eleanor Bunker, high man Harry Randall and others Jim Bradbury, Melissa Hampson and John James.

Sincere sympathy goes to the families and friends of the late Cecil Burk, Maxwell Baker (Eagle Lake), Robert Murphy (Carnarvon), Cora Pasquino, Dagmar Simpson, Allan Griffin and Garth Gammon who recently passed away.

Miss Lois Deacon who is now employed as a biologist with the Ministry of Natural Resources at Brockville spent last weekend with the Harold Deacons.

Card party winners at St. Paul's Anglican Church this week include - lone hands - Ralph Schad, high man - Gladys Wruth, low man - Don Sinclair, high lady - Nora Briggs, low lady - Edith Russell.

A number of members of the Minden LOBA attended a Friendship Dinner hosted by Cameron Lodge in Victoria Hall recently and a good time was had by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hewitt and family of Scarborough were weekend guests with his mother Joyce Hewitt.

All good wishes to these people who may be under the weather, Jim Shaw and George Davidson, and if I missed others, you didn't tell me.

Winners at the Gelert Tuesday night euchres were lone hands Isabel Saunders and others Helen Byrne, May Hicks, Norm Harrison Sr., and Terry Ralph, and next games there are on December 15th.

Lions Club are still selling Hockey Pool Tickets retroactive to first Toronto game and these are available from members - Frank, Lee or call 286-1291. Their Christmas Cakes are delicious and some are still in the stores.

There Goes a Happy Man

See him sauntering down the street
A shiny black bowler
At a rakish angle
Atop his curly head
Tapping his cane
Along the curb
Worn black shoes
A little scuffed
Doesn't matter the dirt of the ground
Or the litter or garbage that lies around
He's a happy man.
The sun is ashinin -
Though he hasn't got a dime
And he ain't got friends
That would give him time,
It's a beautiful day,
The world is his oyster
As he dances along
He smiles his happiness
And hums his song
"Tweedle-dee-dee"
This old world is okay by me." Yvonne relatives over the weekend.

Recent birthdays have been those of Joyce Hewitt, Jean Lacey, Yvonne Newell, Heather McKelvey, Julie Sawyer, Tom Bagshaw and don't forget Lillian Curry on December 10 and she is at Hyland Crest.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Casey and Keith visited over the weekend with Florence Harrison.

Audrey and Bob Vick were happy to be at the birthday party at Vandorf for Dale Vick last Sunday.

Former residents Allan and Yvonne Arburthnot visited Mr. and Mrs. Eldon McCracken last weekend.

May and Terry Ralph of Peterborough visited the Bob Vicks and were at Gelert euchre night.

We hear that Rotary is having a Special Christmas Bingo with turkeys, gifts, baskets and this is a dabber one starting at 7:30 upstairs at the Recreation Centre, Tuesday, December 15th.

Hi Kids!

Here is another puzzle for you with a word list. Look in the diagram of letters for the words given in the list. Find them by reading up, down, forward, backward and diagonally. They are all in a straight line and do not skip letters. Circle the words in the diagram and cross it off the list.

It's as easy as that. Have fun!

Q: How do you know that snakes are careless?

A: Because they keep losing their skins.

Q: What did one sock say to the other?

A: Meet me on the clothes line, that's where I hang out.

Q: Why do gardeners hate weeds?

A: If you give them an inch they take a yard.

Q: What two letters don't you want in your teeth?

A: D.K.

A real "Cabaret of Talent"

by Susan Beers

"What a bunch of talented kids!" "I had no idea our kids were so good". "Good show, eh?"

These were just some of the comments heard Thursday evening in the HHSS auditorium after the Cabaret of Talent presented by the students to a large audience.

The show, which was produced, directed and staged by the Drama Club, was a most entertaining and fun way to spend an evening.

There was something for everyone in the array of talent - comedians, musicians, dancers and actors.

The hosts for the evening were Gina Brohm and Andrew Milne - who set the tone for the evening with Gina as a Vanna White type sophisticate, in a stunning evening gown and dripping with diamonds. Andrew entered as "Joe Deadhead" - a rumpled bush worker, complete with safety helmet and chain saw!

They introduced the acts beginning with an 'a capella' group, "The Pylons" performing "I'll Say Goodbye", followed by a talented group called 'No Strings Attached' who had toes tapping with their rendition of Billy Idol's 'Dancing Queen'.

There were skits, stories, and dances and a virtuoso performance by Dianne Garbutt on the piano. She played a medley of tunes and the audience was asked to "Name the tunes and submit their guesses". The longest performance of the evening was "The Flesh Game", a refreshingly funny short play about Health Farms. This was a coup for the students inasmuch as their performance of the play was the first in North America.

The Drama Club has to be complimented on their production of this evening of enjoyment. There is a great deal of original and entertaining talent at HHSS and everyone did a fine job.

Our hats are off to the following whose contributions added greatly to the evening: Gordie Wood, Mike Blake, Jeff Popple, Derek Little, Greg Hamilton, Hunter Obee, Stuart Mills, Callum Wood, Larry Weyrich, Lee Raback, Beth Burton, Ruth Stouffer, Misty Campbell, Karin Fischbach, Laura Cross, Sara Mowat, Alison Sisson, Angela Smith, Sarah Stouffer, Lisa Valentine, Tricia Atkinson, Lindsey Tashlin, Tammy Pritchard, Chris Holliday-Rhodes, Richard Beers, Dianne Garbutt, Chris Bunker, Andrea Burton, Andy Cooper, Mr. Walter Tose, Terry Johnson, Kathleen Clarke, Chantal Bellefleur, Angela Roberts, Corry Ziorgen, Heather Donaldson, Cindy Danylyshen, Lori Anne Duguay, Ian Hicks, Glen Peters, Katy Beach Lesley Tashlin, Hannah Sennit, Thea Snyder, Brett Irvine, Kiera Connelly, Alison Sisson, Deneena Davis, Tammy Powell, Gina Brohm and Andrew

Milne.

A special commendation to Miss Nancy Robichaud, staff advisor to the Drama Club who assisted in every way possible.

A wonderful beginning to another year at Haliburton Highlands Secondary School.

Well Folks; Here I come again.

The Fearrey family from Haliburton were here to sing and play for us last night and it was much enjoyed.

Sunday evening Mr. & Mrs. Burgess had the service and on Tuesday morning Rev. George Elliott of Minden Anglican Church.

The movies were "Close Harmony" and "Canada is Here".

Guests for Bert Harrison were Karen and baby, Hazel Harrison, Brian Harrison and Derek. Visitors with Mrs. Buttery were her sister Mrs. Kellet and her two brothers Walter and Wilbert Ackersblade. Ina McGuire had her son Don and his wife Doris for dinner. Mrs. Precoor had her granddaughter Toots Hewson for lunch along with Mabel Clendenning. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cameron from Peterborough took Winnie Barnum to Kingston to see her mother and found her very well for her age which is 102 years. Helen Byne from Cobocok was in one day and visited with people she knew. Clark Simpson was in to see his father for a short visit on Thursday last. Percy Brintnell is visiting with his daughter for a few days. Jeanette Lywood was in calling on some folks she knows.

Edith Welch is in Lindsay Hospital. We wish her a speedy recovery so she can be home again.

It's nice to know we are not forgotten.

I just had Violet Cook of Kinmount come to see me with a nice Christmas basket and for others as well as me. I must say it was appreciated very much.

Au Revoir.

Minden OPP notes

During the week of November 23 to 29, officers of the Minden OPP Detachment investigated 34 general occurrences and 12 traffic accidents with two people receiving minor injuries.

Assault

A 28-year-old Minden man will be facing an assault charge after an early-morning incident on November 28 in Minden.

John Norris is to appear in court on January 6 to address this charge. In the mean time, he has been turned over to Halton Regional Police on two outstanding warrants.

Constable Al Barnes investigated the incident.

Breach of undertaking

Bill Weedon, 22, of Harcourt, is back in custody after he was charged with breaking the terms of a bail agreement.

Weedon is accused of breaking into the property of Dr. Good, and at a previous bail hearing on this charge, he was instructed to abide by certain terms and conditions and released.

On the evening of November 29 Minden OPP charged him with violating these conditions. He is being held for a second bail hearing.

OPP Constable Brian Sachs is investigating this matter.

branch 636

100 strong and counting - the membership has doubled since September - what a great source of ideas and support on which to draw. Our December meeting was a happy one - possibly due to the pot luck supper we so thoroughly enjoyed. Many thanks to Anne McAdam and her helpers.

Property Chairman Dave McAdam has arranged a temporary home for the Branch in the upper level of the Community Centre beginning on January 6, 1988 until June. Doors will open at 1 p.m. to 1 a.m. every Wednesday. Our monthly general meeting date will therefore change to the first Wednesday of each month. Dave is compiling a roster of helpers to assist in the room and would appreciate receiving offers from those who wish to help. His number is 286-2856. Further plans for this room will be explained in a later column.

Comrade Doug Tedford has been appointed Sergeant-At-Arms - a very vital and necessary post - welcome Doug.

Comrade Frank Dunsford has assumed the Chairmanship of Membership. Please direct inquiries to him at 286-1291. We hope to have a desk operating at the Community Centre on Wednesdays. Further details about this later. Remember you can save a dollar on 1988 dues until January 1.

Ways and Means Chairman Ron Maddock handed out tickets at the meeting for a draw on March 2 for a 1988 Ski-Doo Tundra purchased from Prentice - Berry. 2500 tickets at $5.00 each are for sale. The purpose is printed on the tickets "Minden Branch 636 Needs A Home." Ron's number is 286-3968 should you wish tickets or to offer a helping hand.

Food baskets have been placed at various locations in Minden and Carnarvon. Please take time to drop in some canned or non-perishable food for those who are less fortunate at Christmas. Comrade Gareth Kellett has been appointed Youth Education Chairman. We are looking forward to our involvement with the students in Minden.

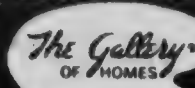

At the conclusion of the meeting, a round of applause was extended by those present to the executive for the manner in which they are conducting the affairs of the branch.

We would very much appreciate hearing from any member who might be interested in writing this column once or twice a month. Please phone 489-2973 or write the branch at Box 238.

CARD OF THANKS

Words truly cannot express how much we appreciate the overwhelming generosity and kindness of the people of Haliburton and Victoria Counties. We've been given such enormous support and aid from our families, friends, acquaintances and even from those we don't know. We've very touched by everyone's concern. What better place to be!!! We'd like to offer special thanks to Dave and Laura, Bourbon Cowboy, Magoo and all the other "jammers", the wonderful staff of the Rockcliffe, and of course, everyone in attendance, for making our benefit dance the success it was. A Good Time Was Had By All! We're so very grateful for all donations, but above all, we feel loved and that, more than anything, has made this whole thing more bearable. Thanks to each and every one of you for our new beginning.

CARD OF THANKS

Paul and Yvonne Pilon would like all their friends, neighbours and relatives who gathered at the Pine Ridge Resort to honour the occasion of their 30th wedding anniversary to know how much we appreciate their thoughtfulness. We were deeply touched. A special thank you is extended to our children, Janette, Paul Jr. and Laurie for the love and effort that went into the arranging of such a wonderful surprise party. Many thanks also to sisters, nieces, nephews, friends and the staff of Pine Ridge who assisted, guided and helped to make this anniversary a very happy and memorable occasion.

The family of the late Maurice Windsor wish to express their thanks to all their friends and relatives for the visits, cards and flowers while Dad was in the Haliburton Hospital. A special thanks to the following for their help and thoughtfulness, Doctor Heyes and the nursing staff, our neighbours for the many fine dishes sent to the house, the UCW ladies for the luncheon, Reverend Moll for his kind words, and to the Gordon Monk Funeral Home. Your kindness and thoughtfulness is gratefully appreciated. Garth, Phylis, Craig and Families

IN MEMORIAM

JANES: In loving memory of my mother, Evelyn, taken from us December 12, 1986.

Peaceful be thy rest dear mother
It is sweet to breathe thy name
In life we loved you dearly
In death we do the same.

Always remembered by
Nancy.

JANES: In loving memory of my father, Max, taken from us December 12, 1986.

I often sit and think of him
When I am all alone
For memory is the only thing
That grief can call its own.

Always remembered by
Nancy.

JANES: In loving memory of our grandparents, Max and Evelyn, lost to us December 12, 1986.

However long our lives may last
Whatever lands we view
Whatever joy or grief be ours
We will always think of you.

Always remembered by
